

From the Women's Tournament Director Michelle Fox, Women's Tournament Director

Team representatives,
For your best chance of getting into a tournament, enter early! The bigger divisions (Women's A, Women's BB, Men's BB) can fill up 3 months ahead of the tournament date. All other divisions fill about a week or two weeks before the tournament date. In the latter cases, it is still important to have your entry postmarked by the entry deadline, which is the Saturday one week before the tournament weekend in which you are planning on playing. It is important that entries are put in the mail by the deadline date to help the tournament director plan for their event — hiring officials, calculating facility charges, getting the right number of awards, etc. After making all of arrangements based on teams entering by the deadline, tournament directors may refuse entry to late entries if they cannot fit them in the tournament.

The important thing is the postmark — the day that you put the entry fee and form in the mail. It doesn't matter if it comes regular mail or express mail. Therefore, don't waste your money on Express Mail or Overnight Mail to get entries in.

For the Regional Championships, you just have to have your entry postmarked by April 1. This event will not fill before the deadline. We will accommodate all on time entries. We will then give away any remaining courts to another event, so we cannot accept late entries.
