

Good Afternoon All,

Unfortunately, after much consideration we are going to be canceling the 2020 USA Volleyball Open National Championships in Minneapolis, MN. Please see the email below that will be sent out to Opens Participants shortly.

Please let me know if you have any questions, and have a great day!
Molly

Opens Participants and Fans,

It is with a sad heart that we must officially cancel the 2020 USA Volleyball Open National Championships in Minneapolis, MN.

We want to thank everyone for providing their feedback on the survey that was sent out last week. In order to host the best event possible, we need all of our participants from all over the US and abroad to be able to compete for their respective championship. After considering all information currently available nationwide, there was no viable alternative left but to cancel the event for the 2020 season. We know that this will disappoint many of our teams, and we are deeply saddened as well.

Thank you all again for your patience and support during these unprecedented times. We hope you all stay safe and healthy, and we look forward to seeing you back in 2021.

Sincerely,
USAV Events Staff
